

CIM Report Mar 9, 2016 10:21am

Course Changes Pending Approval from University Course and Program Committee

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
ADLL 6243			Added
AFLS 403V			Added
HORT 4703	Course Last Update Effective	08/15/2011	Fall 2016
	Course Academic Level	Undergraduate	Dual Level
	Course Delivery Method	On campus	Online/Web-based
	Course Offering Year	Odd Years	Every Year
	Justification		This course will now be offered in Fall of Every Year. It is now taught online thru the ACCEPTS program and therefore, due to increased student numbers, can be offered on a more regular basis.
	Reviewer Comments		mackay Mon, 17 Nov 2014 21:30:36 GMT Rollback: Should be dual enrollment kjvestal Mon, 17 Nov 2014 22:03:30 GMT Rollback: See Dr. Mackay's comment. lindsayt Mon, 24 Nov 2014 00:15:55 GMT Rollback: This course is offered online. Please add "online/web-based" in the Course Delivery Method section of the Change Request. kjvestal Fri, 09 Jan 2015 21:42:41 GMT Rollback: Rolling back to redirect to new Curriculum Committee chair.
HORT 4803	Course Last Update Effective	08/15/2013	Fall 2016
	Course Academic Level	Undergraduate	Dual Level
	Course Offering Term(s)	Fall	Spring
	Course Offering Year	Every Year	Even Years
	Justification		Course is taught as an advanced level course to HORT 4701 and 4703 which is taught in the Fall of Every Year. Student numbers are lower because it is the advanced level and is not taught online so will be taught in Spring of Even Years only. Will re-evaluate need to more regular offering if need increases.
	Reviewer Comments		kjvestal Mon, 17 Nov 2014 21:20:02 GMT Rollback: Rolling back to redirect to new HORT Chair. kjvestal Fri, 09 Jan 2015 21:42:51 GMT Rollback: Rolling back to redirect to new Curriculum Committee chair.
LAWW 650V	code	LAWW 6503	LAWW 650V
	Course Catalog Number	6503	650V
	Course Minimum Credit Hours	3	1
	Course Is Repeatable	No	Yes

	Course Catalog Description	The International Externship exposes students to the manner in which academic learning in areas such as international law and transnational legal transactions is implemented in practice, with opportunities to observe and evaluate the strategies and effectiveness of attorneys in their representation of clients in international and transnational legal practice, to improve legal research and writing skills, and to consider and resolve issues of professional responsibility in an international context. Duties in an IE may include work on assigned cases and transactions, research, preparation of memoranda, consultation with attorneys and members of courts and governmental agencies, observation and discussion of legal proceedings, and attending conferences with counsel when feasible and when such conferences are conducted by the Field Supervisor or another attorney associated with the Field Supervisor. A student extern must engage in at least 168 hours in placement-related assignments during the externship term. Completion of Professional Responsibility is preferred. Additional requirements may be imposed to suit the placement. Placements contemplated within this externship include international public interest organizations and law firms, etc. Placements may be located domestically or abroad.	International Externships are experiences available in the summer to students having completed 30 hours toward the JD degree. Students work variable hours and weeks, in law offices, non-profit/ public interest/ government agencies dealing with international matters. By participating in/observing various tasks, students are exposed to international legal practice and issues of professional responsibility in an international context. There is a Field and an Academic Component to this course.
	Course Allow Multiple Enrollment	No	Yes
	Course Last Update Effective		Fall 2016
	Course Title/Description Change Type		Minor (stylistic/editorial) Change
	Course Maximum Credit Hours		5
	Course Repeat Limit - Units		10
	Course Repeat Limit		2
	Course Topic Names		Academic; Field
	Justification		Updated course description, hanged course to variable credit, added course can be repeated and two topic names Academic and Field to reflect students placement work.
LAWW 654V	code	LAWW 6543	LAWW 654V
	Course Catalog Number	6543	654V
	Course Minimum Credit Hours	3	1
	Course Is Repeatable	No	Yes

	Course Catalog Description	The public interest externship exposes students to practice in the public service and public interest sectors, in a wide range of environments, including traditional and non-traditional settings. Duties in a PIE may include research, preparation of legal memoranda, reports, comment letters, pleadings, and client letters, attendance at client meetings and court proceedings, collection of information from clients/ others, and educational outreach. A student must engage in at least 168 hours of placement-related assignments during the externship term. Completion of Professional Responsibility is preferred. Additional requirements for participation may be imposed to suit the placement. Placements contemplated within the externship include public interest organizations and agencies, such as Legal Aid, Legal Defense and Educational Funds, environmental groups. Placements in private firms, for-profit corporations, or political campaigns for an election or otherwise do not qualify.	Public Interest Externships are experiences available to students having completed 30 hours toward the JD degree. Students work part-time -- 12 hours/week over 14 weeks (variable in summer) -- serving an underprivileged population in traditional and non-traditional public service and public interest sectors. By participating in/observing various tasks, students develop legal and professional skills appropriate to various areas and types of law. There is a Field and an Academic Component to this course.
	Course Allow Multiple Enrollment	No	Yes
	Course Last Update Effective		Fall 2016
	Course Title/Description Change Type		Major Content Change
	Course Maximum Credit Hours		3
	Course Repeat Limit - Units		12
	Course Repeat Limit		4
	Course Topic Names		Academic; Field
	Justification		Updated course description, changed course to variable credit, added course to be repeated and added two topic names Academic and Field to reflect students placement work.
LAWW 660V	code	LAWW 6603	LAWW 660V
	Course Catalog Number	6603	660V
	Course Minimum Credit Hours	3	1
	Course Is Repeatable	No	Yes
	Course Catalog Description	The Government Externship exposes students to the manner in which academic learning is implemented in practice by government officials and agencies in the regulation and administration of the law. Duties may include research of various administrative laws, drafting regulations or ordinances, drafting opinions interpreting law, reviewing documents, attending and observing public meetings, and educational outreach.	Government Externships are experiences available to students having completed 30 hours toward the JD degree. Students work part-time -- 12 hours/week over 14 weeks (variable in summer) -- alongside government attorneys, exposing students to legal issues and practice in government agencies. By participating in/observing various tasks, students develop legal and professional skills appropriate to government work. There is a Field and an Academic Component to this course.
	Course Allow Multiple Enrollment	No	Yes
	Course Primary Component	Lecture	Apprenticeship/Externship
	Course Prerequisite(s)	LAWW 5013.
	Course Last Update Effective		Fall 2016
	Course Title/Description Change Type		Major Content Change

	Course Maximum Credit Hours		3
	Course Repeat Limit - Units		12
	Course Repeat Limit		4
	Course Topic Names		Academic; Field
	Justification		Updated course description, changed course to variable credit, added course to be repeated and added two topic names Academic and Field to reflect students placement work.
LAWW 671V	code	LAWW 6713	LAWW 671V
	Course Catalog Number	6713	671V
	Course Minimum Credit Hours	3	1
	Course Is Repeatable	No	Yes
	Course Catalog Description	Judicial Externship is an elective externship for second and third year students. Externs shall report to and be under direct supervision of a judge of the federal district court, the bankruptcy court, or a circuit court approved by the externship coordinator. Externs' duties may be determined by the supervising judge and may include work on assigned cases, research, preparation of memoranda, and consultation with full-time law clerks.	Judicial Externships are experiences available to students having completed 30 hours toward the JD degree. Students work part-time -- 12 hours/week over 14 weeks (variable in summer) – in judicial chambers, exposing students to the court system and the adjudication of cases from the judge's perspective. By observing proceedings/engaging in research/judicial writing, students develop legal and professional skills appropriate to litigation. There is a Field and an Academic Component to this course.
	Course Allow Multiple Enrollment	No	Yes
	Course Primary Component	Internship	Apprenticeship/Externship
	Course Last Update Effective		Fall 2016
	Course Title/Description Change Type		Major Content Change
	Course Maximum Credit Hours		3
	Course Repeat Limit - Units		12
	Course Repeat Limit		4
	Course Topic Names		Academic; Field
	Justification		Updated course description and changed to variable credit to reflect students two topics academic and field placement work.
LAWW 673V	code	LAWW 6733	LAWW 673V
	Course Catalog Number	6733	673V
	Course Minimum Credit Hours	3	1
	Course Is Repeatable	No	Yes

	Course Catalog Description	Criminal Defense Externship (CDE) exposes students to the practice of criminal law, and opportunities to experience the strategy and application of Rules of Evidence and Criminal Procedure from the vantage point of a public defense attorney. Duties in a CDE may include research, preparation of pleas, motions, memoranda, participation in some aspects of investigation, interview of defendants, and observation and discussion of various courtroom criminal proceedings. A student extern must engage in at least 168 hours in placement-related assignments during the externship term. Completion of Professional Responsibility, Criminal Law (Federal Criminal Law for placement in a federal office), and Criminal Procedure, or simultaneous enrollment is preferred. Additional requirements may be imposed to suit the placement. Placements contemplated within the CDE include the Offices of State Public Defenders and Federal Public Defenders.	Criminal Defense Externships are experiences available to students having completed 30 hours toward the JD degree. Students work part-time -- 12 hours/week over 14 weeks (variable in summer) -- alongside Public Defenders, exposing students to criminal law and strategy from the defense perspective. By participating in/observing various tasks, students develop legal and professional skills appropriate to criminal defense world. There is a Field and an Academic Component to this course.
	Course Allow Multiple Enrollment	No	Yes
	Course Last Update Effective		Fall 2016
	Course Title/Description Change Type		Major Content Change
	Course Maximum Credit Hours		3
	Course Repeat Limit - Units		12
	Course Repeat Limit		4
	Course Topic Names		Academic; Field
	Justification		Updated course description, changed course to variable credit, added course to be repeated and added two topic names Academic and Field to reflect students placement work.
LAWW 683V	code	LAWW 6833	LAWW 683V
	Course Catalog Number	6833	683V
	Course Minimum Credit Hours	3	1
	Course Is Repeatable	No	Yes
	Course Catalog Description	The Criminal Prosecution Externship exposes students to the practice of criminal law and opportunities to experience the strategy and application of Rules of Evidence and Criminal Procedure from the vantage point of a prosecuting attorney. Duties may include research, preparation of charges, motions, memoranda, participation in some aspects of investigation, observation and discussion of various courtroom criminal proceedings. Student extern must engage in at least 168 hours in placement-related assignments during the externship term. Completion of Professional Responsibility, Criminal Law (Federal Criminal Law for placement in a federal office), and Criminal Procedure, or simultaneous enrollment is preferred. Additional requirements for participation may be imposed to suit the placement. Placements contemplated include the Offices of State Prosecuting Attorneys and United States Attorneys.	Criminal Prosecution Externships are experiences available to students having completed 30 hours toward the JD degree. Students work part-time -- 12 hours/week over 14 weeks (variable in summer) -- alongside prosecutors, exposing students to criminal law and strategy from the prosecutorial perspective. By participating in/observing various tasks, students develop legal and professional skills appropriate to criminal prosecution. There is a Field and an Academic Component to this course.

	No	Yes
Course Allow Multiple Enrollment
Course Last Update Effective		Fall 2016
Course Title/Description Change Type		Major Content Change
Course Maximum Credit Hours		3
Course Repeat Limit - Units		12
Course Repeat Limit		4
Course Topic Names		Academic, Field
Justification		Updated course description, changed to variable credit and added two topic names and changed Academic and Field to reflect students placement work.