The SOCI department is deleting the SOCI 4133 The Family course from their curriculum, The SOCI faculty have also proposed to delete SOCI 2043 Marriage and Family, and have proposed a new course SOCI 3263 Families and Social Change which will combine elements of both of those courses. Because of this curricular change in SOCI, we wish to remove the SOCI 4133 course from our list of approved GNST courses, and we wish to add the newly proposed course SOCI 3263 Families and Social Change in its place.

Description and justification of the request:

SOCI 3263 Families and Social Change is currently in the CIM approval queue.

We also wish to include these additional courses which will contribute GNST-related content to the minor and provide students with additional choices/options.
