In addition to the requirements of a primary departmental major, students pursuing a second major in Latin American and Latino Studies must complete the following:

Language Competence: The student must complete SPAN 2013, PORT 2013, or equivalent. ~~SPAN 2013 (or equivalent)~~. Provisions are available for recognition of language skills gained by other means than formal course work taken at the University of Arkansas: See information under the entry in the department of world languages. Further functional work in Spanish or Portuguese as well as study and residence in a Latin American nation can serve to strengthen language competence and are encouraged.

Colloquium: The student must complete at least three hours in the interdepartmental colloquium, LAST 4003. The Colloquium may be repeated, with the adviser's approval, provided the topic is different.

Electives: The student must complete 18 hours, in addition to LAST 4003, ~~LAST 4003~~, in courses with specific Latin American or Latino content, or individualized study options under instructors teaching Latin American or Latino studies. Students choosing to take individualized readings or directed research courses must obtain the approval of the director of the area studies program. In the selection of the electives, the following conditions apply:

1.) Adding PORT 2013 as an option to fulfill the LAST Language Competence

Justification: We want to add this requirement back into the catalog. Portuguese had traditionally been one of the two languages students could use to fulfill the LAST language requirement but was removed after the loss of our Portuguese faculty. Portuguese specialist Edvan Brito who just joined the WLLC Department (and LAST faculty), and we will once again be able to offer the PORT language sequence.

2.) Changes to list of Approved Electives:

Removal of ANTH 3213

Originally, ANTH 3213 was adapted at the request of the previous LAST director to incorporate the Latin American indigenous experience so that it could be offered to students as an LAST-related course. It was the only ANTH LAST-related course at the time. Other LAST-appropriate permanent courses (ANTH 3553 and ANTH 4263) are now available to students, and ANTH special topics courses related to LAST issues are frequently offered; therefore, ANTH 3213 is no longer needed for this particular purpose.

Trying to continue to incorporate the Latin American indigenous experience in amongst all of the other issues (and sheer geographic and cultural diversity) we have to cover when addressing Indigenous North America. There is the added fact that listing it under LAST is awkward for Dr. Gloria Young, who teaches the class as a correspondence/Global Campus

Description and justification of the request:

offering, as she is not a Latin Americanist. If a LAST student wanted to take the correspondence version of ANTH 3213 with Gloria, we would be hard-pressed to deny them LAST credit, yet Gloria does not include enough Latin American content to justify it being a LAST class. For all of those reasons, I'd like to go ahead and remove it from LAST's electives list. (ANTH 3213 is being renamed as "Indigenous Peoples of North America.")

Removal of ANTH 3523

We are removing this course because it was put on the books and taught by ANTH professor Steve Striffler, who is no longer at the U of A.

*Chair of ANTH Justin Nolan has agreed to the above changes.

Addition of several History classes to our Electives list:

-HIST 4173 – The Latin American City

HIST 4453 – Frontiers and Borderlands in Colonial Latin America

HIST 4743 – The Cold War in Latin America

HIST 4813 – Africans and Slavery in Colonial Latin America

All four of these classes contain LAST content and should be listed among our LAST electives.

*Chair of HIST Undergraduate Studies Alessandro Brogi, his committee, and the chair of the history department have agreed to the above changes.

Addition of SOCI 3173

This course is offered frequently by one of the LAST program core instructors. The content supports the LAST program and should be listed among our LAST electives.

*Chair of SOCI Anna Zajicek has agreed to the above changes.
