Description and justification of the request

Description of specific change	Justification for this change
The current Human Nutrition and Hospitality Innovation major has three concentrations: Nutrition and Dietetics, General Foods and Human Nutrition, and Hospitality Innovation. This proposal reorganizes the program by offering three Human Nutrition and Hospitality Innovation majors: 1) Human Nutrition and Dietetics, 2) Food, Nutrition and Health, and 3) Hospitality Management. Two minors are proposed for Hospitality Management: 1) Event Management and 2) Hospitality Management.	The proposed changes allow Human Nutrition and Hospitality Innovation students to receive a diploma designative of their coursework and chosen academic field. This will assist our students in ensuring they will have a greater opportunity to gain career positions in the industry for whom their diploma was awarded. Changing the name from Hospitality Innovation to Hospitality Management is more indicative of the coursework being studied in the hospitality curriculum. The re-configuration of the General Foods and Nutrition degree and change of name to Food, Nutrition and Health is designed to meet student needs for a sustainable, viable and useful degree, for students who need a different pathway other than Human Nutrition and Dietetics to complete as opposed to being unsuccessful in the pursuit of a degree. It is proposed that the General Foods and Nutrition minor become a minor in Human Nutrition to more accurately reflect the content. The Board of Advisors indicated that the program name change is more indicative of what the program is: Human Nutrition, Dietetics and Hospitality Management. The word dietetics needs to be included to direct students who are searching for that major. The word, Innovation is too broad and difficult to define; therefore, it is being replaced by the word Management. Management better describes what the hospitality program is teaching. This change is encouraged and supported by both the hospitality students, nutrition and dietetics students, and both the NUTR and HOSP Board of Advisors.

Reviewer Comments Michael Evans (mrevans) (09/07/17 11:31 am): Rollback: Rolling back for corrections as requested.
Michael Evans (mrevans) (09/08/17 8:20 am): Rollback: Rolling back for correction as per request
Michael Evans (mrevans) (09/08/17 1:41 pm): Rollback: Rolling back to add HESC 1403 as Social Science option

Michael Evans (mrevans) (09/11/17 8:31 am): Rollback: Please add University Perspectives (1 hr) under University Requirements under Program Requirements and Description

Alice Griffin (agriffin) (09/15/17 11:28 am): Uploaded a revised copy of LON 11, including feedback from program. Inserted approval dates and renamed form to match naming convention for BOT documentation.

Alice Griffin (agriffin) (09/15/17 11:46 am): Minor edits to LON 5. Renamed LON to match naming convention for BOT documentation.

Alice Griffin (agriffin) (09/15/17 11:54 am): Entered credit hours into 8SDCP for proposed courses so that hours would total 120.

Alice Griffin (agriffin) (09/15/17 12:00 pm): Removed sum hours request in program requirements. Added comment of Total Hours with 120 hours noted to demonstrate program does not provide option of earning 119-120 hours. College is encouraged to review and edit as appropriate.

Lisa Kulczak (lkulcza) (09/25/17 6:31 pm): HOSP courses "not found" currently in approval process.

Michael Evans (mrevans) (10/02/17 3:45 pm): Rollback: I do not see HOSP 2653 listed in the Program Requirements window. I do see it in the 8 semester plan and the attachment. Please make sure that in the course change for HOSP 2653 and this program change that the same name is used for the course. In the 8 semester plan, as it is currently submitted, in year three student would only have 29 hours and this might cause them to lose scholarships.

Alice Griffin (agriffin) (10/18/17 6:39 pm): The LON was edited with assistance from program and feedback from Gary Gunderman. Uploading revised copy.

Alice Griffin (agriffin) (10/30/17 10:21 am): ADHE updated the LON 5 template to included item 11. Inserted current curriculum for programs being deleted. Uploaded revised form.

Alice Griffin (agriffin) (11/02/17 2:33 pm): ADHE updated LON templates. Changes did not influence curriculum provided by college. Uploaded revised forms.
