Program Requirements and Description

Requirements

~~J.D./M.B.A. Students pursuing their degrees concurrently must gain admission to both the School of Law and the Graduate School and be accepted in the program. The School of Law and the College of Business Administration cooperate in offering an opportunity for students to pursue the J.D. and the Master of Business Administration (M.B.A.) degrees concurrently.~~program

For students interested in obtaining both the ~~of study leading to the~~ M.B.A. and J.D. (law) degrees, the M.B.A./J.D. dual degree program is available. This program allows the student to receive both the M.B.A. degree and the J.D. degree. The program requires separate application ~~The School of Law and~~ admission to both the School of Law and ~~College of Business Administration cooperate in offering an opportunity for students to pursue~~ the Graduate School of Business and the M.B.A. ~~J.D.~~ degree program. Interested students should obtain bulletins and applications from both the School of Law and the Graduate School of Business. If the student is accepted into both programs, a maximum of ~~twelve six~~ hours of ~~approved approved, upper-level elective~~ law core courses may be used as duplicate credit toward the M.B.A. ~~degree.~~ These ~~twelve degree, and a maximum of six~~ hours of law core ~~approved graduate~~ courses shall ~~in business administration may~~ be applied to ~~used as duplicate credit toward~~ the ~~twelve hours of career track courses within the M.B.A. J.D.~~ degree plan. Likewise, a maximum of twelve hours of approved M.B.A. core courses may be used as duplicate credit toward the J.D. degree, thus reducing the total time necessary for the completion of ~~both degrees.~~ the degrees.
