Candidacy ExaminationsAll students must pass a Candidacy Exam which consists of two components.

~~Students must also register for graduate seminar each semester they are in residence. Students must have a 3.00 cumulative grade point average in order to graduate. If at any point, a student's cumulative GPA falls below a 3.00 the student will be placed on academic probation. A student with a cumulative GPA below 3.00 for two consecutive semesters will be dismissed from the program. Note: The foregoing requirements are for students who enter the doctoral program directly from undergraduate school. Students whose qualifications exceed the baccalaureate will be evaluated individually in accordance with standards established by the Graduate School and the Walton College of Business. Students who have earned a master's degree in economics at the University of Arkansas or elsewhere may have substantially shorter programs.~~ Comprehensive Examinations: The first component entails ~~Students must pass~~ written Comprehensive Examinations ~~examinations~~ in microeconomics and macroeconomics. These exams will normally be taken given in the summer after a student's first year in the program. Each exam has three possible grades: Pass, Marginal Pass, and Fail. Students must earn at least a Marginal ~~Pass~~ on one of the both exams and at least a Marginal Pass on the other exam. in at least one of the exams. A student will normally have two opportunities to pass each Comprehensive Examination, exam with the second opportunity typically occurring in that January following the first attempt. January. If a student's exam scores are not satisfactory, all exams for which a grade of Pass was not earned must be retaken. Only the most recent grade will be used in determining if this requirement has been met. ~~Students will normally have only two attempts to pass the candidacy exams.~~ Failure to successfully complete this requirement will result in a student being dismissed from the program.

~~Field Examination: Ph.D.~~ The second component is a Field Examination. Students complete ~~students will have~~ two fields of study within economics, study, which will normally be a) Industrial Organization and b) International Macroeconomics and Development. Other fields are possible with the approval of the Director of Graduate Doctoral Studies. A field will consist of 6 hours of specialized courses (numbered 6000 or above). Students will select one of their two fields as a major field and must pass a Field Exam Examination in that area. The Field Exam Examination requirement is satisfied by a research paper on a topic in the student's field of specialization. specialization that is approved by the student's adviser. The paper is to will typically be completed by after the end of student completes the ~~required field courses (typically in the summer following the after the student's second year during which the student completes the required field courses. year).~~ The field paper topic must be approved by the student's advisor and registered with the Director of Graduate Studies. The Field Examination This requirement is satisfactorily fulfilled completed when the student's adviser approves the completed paper. When feasible, the paper will be presented at a departmental seminar before it is approved by the student's adviser or soon after. adviser. ~~Dissertation: Failure The dissertation represents a demonstration of a candidate's ability to successfully select, define, organize, and complete this requirement will result in a student being dismissed from the program. a major research project.~~

After passing the Candidacy Examination, doctoral students are required to be enrolled in a minimum of one hour of graded graduate coursework or dissertation credit each semester (Fall and Spring) while on graduate assistantship.

Dissertation*

The dissertation demonstrates a student’s ability to select, define, organize, and complete a major research project. It should validate ~~demonstrate~~ that the student has technical mastery of the field, is capable of doing independent scholarly research, and is able to formulate conclusions that enlarge the body of economic knowledge. Dissertation requirements include (1) a defense of proposal and (2) completion of an acceptable doctoral dissertation. Students must enroll in a total of 18 hours of dissertation credit.

Final Examination:Final Examination

The final examination is normally an oral defense of the student’s dissertation.
