Program Requirements and Description

Requirements

Capstone Experience and Fulbright College Writing Requirement: The college writing requirement is fulfilled by submitting an acceptable research/analytical paper to the department for approval at least four weeks prior to graduation. The paper may be derived from completion of an honors essay (INST 399VH), a seminar research paper (INST 4003 or INST 4003H), or some other advanced course in international and global studies. The student is urged to consult with his or her faculty adviser no later than early in the first semester of the senior year.

~~The International Studies Seminar (INST 4003/INST 4003H) provides the capstone experience for International Studies majors. Successful completion of INST 4003 or INST 4003H with a grade of "C" or better satisfies the Fulbright College Writing Requirement for International Studies majors.~~

Description and justification of the request

Description of specific change	Justification for this change
Change dept. code from International Studies to Department of Political Science	Facilitates administrative merger of INST and PLSC
Change requirements for meeting Fulbright Requirement	Aligns language and structure of INST and PLSC Fulbright Writing Requirement and allows for new Applied Global Studies requirement in major.
