Program Requirements and Description

Requirements

Requirements for Graduation with Honors in English: Both the College and the Departmental Honors Program in English allow upper-division undergraduates to strengthen their study of English and adapt it to their interests. Honors candidates enroll in special courses and do directed independent study and research. In addition to the college and departmental requirements for the major in English and the general college requirements for the B.A. degree, each honors candidate in English must

Be accepted as an honors candidate by the department (requiring a minimum, cumulative grade-point average of 3.5 in all course work),

Complete at least nine hours of non-thesis honors course work, at least three hours of which must be in English, Enroll in at least three hours of Senior Thesis ENGL 498HV and write an honors thesis (either a critical study or a creative writing project) under the direction of a faculty member in the Department of English, and Defend the candidate's entire honors program in an oral examination.

Candidates may petition to enroll in a departmental graduate seminar. To complete the required thesis successfully, candidates should choose an honors thesis adviser as early as possible. An adviser should be selected, and an Honors Agreement completed, no later than the first semester in a candidate's junior year. Candidates who complete the honors program with merit will graduate with the distinction "English Scholar Cum Laude." The distinctions of Magna Cum Laude and Summa Cum Laude will be awarded only for exceptional work and will be based on the candidate's entire honors program.
