The History Department has withdrawn its request to continue their four survey courses in the Humanities category of the State minimum Core. They will remain in the Social Sciences category and the US History in the History/Government category.	Made updates to footnotes #1 and #7.\\nThe faculty reviewed academic performance criteria related to grade performance. A proposal was brought forward by Department Head John Folan and brought the proposal to vote with 15 Qualified Voting Members, full-time faculty on continuing appointment, voting\\nunananimously 15-0 in favor of adopting the amended policy included below. This statement should replace footnote #1 under the 10-semester degree plan:\\n\\n“Students are reviewed at the end of the fall and spring semesters and may continue in the BArch \\nor ARSTBS program if they meet the following criteria: “C” or better in ARCH 10105, Architectural\\nDesign I; “C” or better in PHYS 10404, Physics for Architects I or an approved equivalent; “C” or\\nbetter in ARCH 12102, Design Thinking I: Foundations in Technology; “C” or better in ARCH\\n10205 Architectural Design II; “C” or better in 12202, Design Thinking II: Foundations in History;\\nMaintain a 2.0 GPA. Students who do not meet these criteria may not advance to the second\\nyear of the BArch or ARSTBS Program and will receive a letter advising accordingly.”\\n• The relationship between curricular assessment and student performance was reinforced through discussion of\\ncoordinated evaluation methodologies in core courses to ensure fairness and opportunity for student success\\n\\nUpdated study abroad text and removed "Latin American" country since we've not done that in some years now. The relationship between curricular assessment and student performance was reinforced through discussion of\\ncoordinated evaluation methodologies in core courses to ensure fairness and opportunity for student success. This eliminates confusion regarding what passes in semester one vs. semester two.\\nThere are no approved Latin American countries in our study abroad options.
