Program Requirements, Description and 8-Semester Plan

Recreation Policy Concentration

The recreation administration concentration is devoted to the development of governmental and grass roots recreation systems. This would include state and federal agencies or associations dealing with recreation and park issues, large city recreation departments, and grass roots directors who use recreation as the backbone of their efforts. The specialty course work will include an understanding of city recreation, legal and political aspects, recreation issues and philosophy.

Course of Study (12 hours)

Select from the following courses:

RECR 5813--Principles of Recreation

RECR 600V--Reading in Recreation

RECR 5223--Applies Leisure Behavior

Select two other courses in the specialist areas at the graduate level.
