 Title: The Emily J. and J.W. McAllister Piano Area of Study

Include justification and any necessary catalog text changes in the box below.

We request to change the Department of Music's piano area of study to become the Emily J. & J.W. McAllister Piano Area of Study. The Department of Music would also refer to this as the Emily J. & J.W. McAllister Piano Program (meaning, area of study). In January of 2011, Emily and J.W. McAllister entered into a gift agreement with the University of Arkansas to provide and $500,000 piano endowment and a $500,000 Steinway program match gift. In the agreement the donors were given the option to name the piano program upon completion of the stated pledges. In December 2015, after Emily's passing, the pledge commitment was fulfilled. The language in the gift agreement is stated as follows, "The Emily J. and J. W. McAllister Steinway Challenge and related Emily and J. W. McAllister Endowed Piano Fund are administered in accordance with their respective gift agreements. When totaled, the donors' gift commitments to these two funds are potentially $1 million, and thereby provide the opportunity but not the obligation for Emily J. and/or J. W. McAllister to name the university piano program..."
