Description and justification of the request

Description of specific change	Justification for this change
The current Human Nutrition and Hospitality Innovation major has three concentrations: Nutrition and Dietetics, General Foods and Human Nutrition, and Hospitality Innovation. This proposal reorganizes the program by offering three Human Nutrition and Hospitality Innovation majors: 1) Human Nutrition and Dietetics, 2) Food, Nutrition and Health, and 3) Hospitality Management. Two minors are proposed for Hospitality Management: 1) Event Management and 2) Hospitality Management.	The proposed changes allow Human Nutrition and Hospitality Innovation students to receive a diploma designative of their coursework and chosen academic field. This will assist our students in ensuring they will have a greater opportunity to gain career positions in the industry for whom their diploma was awarded. Changing the name from Hospitality Innovation to Hospitality Management is more indicative of the coursework being studied in the hospitality curriculum. The re-configuration of the General Foods and Nutrition degree and change of name to Food, Nutrition and Health is designed to meet student needs for a sustainable, viable and useful degree, for students who need a different pathway other than Human Nutrition and Dietetics to complete as opposed to being unsuccessful in the pursuit of a degree. It is proposed that the General Foods and Nutrition minor become a minor in Human Nutrition to more accurately reflect the content.

Description of specific change	Justification for this change
	The Board of Advisors indicated that the program name change is more indicative of what the program is: Human Nutrition, Dietetics and Hospitality Management. The word dietetics needs to be included to direct students who are searching for that major. The word, Innovation is too broad and difficult to define; therefore, it is being replaced by the word Management. Management better describes what the hospitality program is teaching. This change is encouraged and supported by both the hospitality students, nutrition and dietetics students, and both the NUTR and HOSP Board of Advisors.
