Honors Program

The College of Education and Health Professions (COEHP) Honors Program is designed for students who value and want to be challenged by an exceptional educational experience and want to focus their studies intensively. The program creates and supports an academic environment of intellectual adventure and provides a carefully integrated and demanding curriculum. The rewards are immense: high academic achievement; involvement in undergraduate research; academic distinction of summa cum laude, magna cum laude, or cum laude and confirmation of an honors degree on the student's transcript; and recognition at commencement.

The mission of the Honors Program is to: establish and maintain an Honors community of learning that is intellectually rigorous, personally and culturally enriching, and fosters learning and discovery through independent and collaborative inquiry; allow students to be creative, inquisitive and innovative; support student research and analysis of ideas; support student academic ventures through mentoring, travel, and supplies when presenting work at undergraduate research symposia; challenge students to connect the classroom with the larger world by expanding social and cultural experiences and promoting leadership, and prepare students for admission to and success within graduate and professional schools in the United States and abroad.

Benefits of participating in the Honors Program include: small class sizes, close contact with talented faculty, opportunity for independent study that counts toward the requirements of the Honors Program, special academic counseling and priority registration, increased confidence and skill in writing, honors housing, Latin recognition on transcript as "Graduate of the University Honors designation on transcript, Program," enhanced career opportunities, and increased advantages for graduate or professional school applicants. Admission to the University of Arkansas Honors College assures automatic admission to the COEHP Honors Program for incoming freshmen. The student can apply for admission electronically through the following website: <https://honorscollege.uark.edu/apply/index.php> <http://honorscollege.uark.edu/512.php>. The following are admission criteria for students seeking admission to the COEHP Honors Program:

Honors Degrees

The College of Education and Health Professions is dedicated to providing programs designed to meet the honors student's needs. To achieve this aim, the college faculty has developed the COEHP College Honors Program - an honors program for students of superior academic talent. Students successfully completing the COEHP College Honors Program will receive the following academic accolades:

GPA \geq ~~3.9~~ 3.9 – summa cum laude

GPA \geq ~~3.7~~ 3.7 – magna cum laude

GPA \geq ~~3.5~~ 3.5 – cum laude

Requirements for the COEHP Honors Program: College Honors: Requirements for the COEHP College Honors include meeting all University, university, COEHP, and department degree requirements. ~~requirements; completion of a minimum total of 18 honors hours; completion of honors requirements including preparation and oral defense of an honors thesis; and a minimum cumulative grade-point average of 3.5. Additional breakdown for awarding College Honors:~~ Additionally, students must maintain – a cumulative GPA minimum of 3.5, complete a minimum of 18 6 honors-credit hours from within the student's major plan of Honors courses, study (not to include thesis and complete and defend an Honors Thesis/Project. tutorial hours); combined with a minimum of 8 credit hours completed either inside or outside of the student's major plan of study; plus 3 credit hours of thesis and hour of tutorial credits. Of the 18 Honors credit hours, a minimum of 10 must be completed within the student's program of study, including the Honors Tutorial (3901H) and Honors Thesis (498VH).

Honors courses must be completed in residence at the University of Arkansas – Fayetteville campus in order to satisfy the required 18 Honors credits to receive the COEHP Honors distinction. Any Honors credits awarded based on AP/IB results shall not be used to fulfill this requirement. Transfer students from other four-year institutions may initiate an appeal with the COEHP Honors Council if they wish to have transfer Honors credit satisfy part of the 18 hour requirement.
