Description and Justification for this request

Description of request	Justification for request
The Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences School of Art at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville (UAF) proposes the development of a master's degree program in Art Education with concentrations in Schools and Community and Museums. The goal is to establish a premier program to meet the current and future needs of art educators in schools and community/museum programs in the region, state, nation, and world. The program is designed to enhance student knowledge and practices within the field of art education with a focus on meeting the necessary demands of a diverse and inclusive professional practice. Both concentrations offer a broad range of courses on art theories, visual culture studies, pedagogical theories, and research methodologies. For the Schools concentration, students will take core research and pedagogy courses as well as electives to build their expertise in an area of interest. The Community and Museums concentration will include the same core courses as well as electives and internship opportunities at local, national, or international museum and community venues. Both concentrations will apply contemporary art education theory, practice, and research as applicable to the students' goals, whether they be preparation for doctoral study or professional practice. The program content will comply with the National Art Education Association (NAEA) and the National Association of Schools of Art and Design (NASAD) standards. This degree will prepare students to advance their professional roles as artists, teachers, researchers, and leaders in various venues, such as schools, museums, community organizations, and institutions. There is a need to establish a Master of Arts (M.A.) degree in Art Education considering that there is no stand-alone M.A. degree in Art Education in the state of Arkansas. In addition to the expectation of the new $120 million endowment to build M.A. and Ph.D. programs, there is an expectation to establish an M.A. degree in art Education	The new program will be funded by $280,000 of annual support from the Walton Family Charitable Support Foundation. This funding will support faculty and student research, travel, visiting art educators, and materials/technology to run the program. In addition, beginning in the fall of 2019, four Art Education faculty will be in place with additional projected faculty hires supported by the endowment listed above. Each of four endowed chairs will have an annual amount of $60,000. A portion of a $36 million endowment will also support graduate students with a $2,000,000 endowment for library resources.

with a strong emphasis on diversity, inclusion, community, and interdisciplinary scholarship. This degree will advance students' knowledge and professional application in an increasingly diverse, inclusive, and interdisciplinary world serving as a vehicle for community and university cross-disciplinary collaborations including but not limited to— African American Studies; Curriculum and Instruction; Gender Studies; History; Human Development and Family Studies; Political Science; Psychology; Social Work; Sociology; and World Languages, Literatures, & Cultures.
