Fulbright College Writing Requirement: Prior to graduation, each history major must submit a substantial research or analytical paper with a grade of "A" or "B" from a 3000-level or higher HIST course to a departmental advisor. The required senior capstone seminar, HIST 4893, is designed to give history majors the opportunity and guidance to produce a paper to meet this requirement, but students may also submit a paper from another HIST course or from satisfactory completion of an honors thesis.

1College Honors students must take HIST 1113H, HIST 1123H, HIST 3973H and at least 3 credit hours of HIST 399VH. College Honors students may not apply more than 6 credit hours of HIST 399VH to the history major.

2Honors students must take HIST 3973H instead of HIST 4893. Under special circumstances, on a case by case basis, the program director may allow Honors students to take HIST 4893.

3Students may not receive credit for both HIST 3383 and HIST 4583.

Students must select at least 3 credit hours from each of the following groups (1-3)

Courses listed in more than one group may fill only one group requirement.

Program Goals and Objectives

Program Goals and Objectives

The Program's goal is to allow students to develop the craft and skills necessary for careers requiring knowledge of history, critical analysis, and research, including teaching, law, government, and private business organizations. The global scope of the program allows students to pursue their interest in a particular region, time, period, or culture, while also being exposed to cultural diversity and contextualization in an increasingly interdependent world.
