Program Goals and Objectives

Program Goals and Objectives

The purpose of the minor is to promote global citizenship on campus by providing wide-ranging training in regional language and culture, international issues, and intercultural skills. The special emphasis on Global Studies seeks to raise awareness of a range of issues impacting human and natural systems on a worldwide scale both through participation in a gateway course and through the selection of an advanced course treating a selected global issue.

Learning Outcomes

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the concentration, students will be able to

1. Explain how different disciplinary approaches inform general understanding of international affairs and relationships.
2. Identify and describe key features of a defined world area, including but not limited to its history, geography, economy, and cultures.
3. Demonstrate understanding of the complexity of components important to members of another culture.
4. Explain, using the example of one or more global issues, the historical and contemporary roles, interconnections, and differential effects of human organizations and actions on global systems within the human and/or natural worlds.
