Justification for this

The department is proposing the deletion of six independent majors in conjunction with a proposal to consolidate those under one Bachelor of Arts degree in World Languages, Literatures, and Cultures. The existing majors in Classical Studies, Arabic, French, German, Italian, and Spanish will become concentrations within the new degree, thus allowing students to continue pursuing degrees in those languages and in Classical Studies (which includes Greek and Latin). Therefore, the department requests the deletion of the Bachelor of Arts in Italian to accommodate this new structure.

Lisa Kulczak (lkulcza) (09/17/24 4:27 pm): Uploaded revised LON. This concentration deletion was missed in the first round of proposals submitted in Program Management for the reconfiguration of CLSTBA into WLLCBA and the subsequent deletion of the stand-alone majors. However, ITALBA program deletion documentation which covers this concentration has already been submitted for the November Board of Trustees agenda.
