Program Requirements and Description

---

Requirements

Requirements for Departmental Honors in Art: As part of the Honors Studies Program in Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Art provides the opportunity for academically superior students to acquire broader and deeper knowledge and skills in the visual arts and related disciplines. This is accomplished through independent research projects in design studios and art/design history courses under the direction of the art faculty. Students must declare honors prior to the start of spring semester of their sophomore year. The School of Art requires each applicant to have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.5 as well as a minimum GPA of 3.5 in courses from the School of Art. Students must complete and defend an honors thesis in conjunction with their degree project and complete 12 credit hours in honors studies which may include six credit hours of honors thesis. Higher degree distinctions take into consideration the students' entire academic career and are recommended for only those students whose honors projects and programs of study demonstrate a truly exceptional degree of creativity and scholarship.
